

The American Center Colombo Presents

The Six Essential Skills of Extraordinary Entrepreneurs

By Amy Wilkinson

About Amy

Amy Wilkinson is a strategic adviser, entrepreneur, lecturer at the Stanford Graduate School of Business, and Global Fellow at the Wilson Center. She frequently addresses corporate, association, and university audiences on entrepreneurial leadership. She also advises start-ups and large corporations on innovation and business strategy.

Her career spans leadership roles with McKinsey & Company and JP Morgan and as founder of a small foreign-based export company. Wilkinson has served as a White House Fellow in the Office of the United States Trade Representative and as a senior fellow at the Harvard Kennedy School.

Date: Tuesday 16, February, 2016

Time: 4.15 pm to 5.30 pm

Venue: The American Center, # 44, Galle Road, Colombo 03

Register: amcentersl@state.gov

Tel: 011-2498146 or 8169

ADMISSION FREE – LIMITED SEATS

NIC, valid identification or American Center Membership card is required for access.